From The Editor

Welcome to the Jayco Jaybirds SA club newsletter.

Many thanks to Jan for her report on the Berri Rally and to Pauline for the photos.

Rally Information

Stony Creek.

If you intend doing but haven't booked get, you needed to just be know asap.

Also if you intend staying longer than just the Friday and Saturday night you need to advise the park asap.

Phone Wayne on 0488156850.

There are 14 vans (27 people) currently attending.

We are organising a shared roast dinner for the Friday night. The club is paying for all the meat. Pauline Bolton is organising a list of veggies and desserts for members to bring to add to the dinner. This way individuals won't have to cook a meal. It should be easier for everyone and we shouldn't end up with heaps of left overs.

Pauline will be in touch shortly.

Lin and I might spend a few nights further into the Flinders Ranges after the rally. If anyone is interested in visiting a couple of places please let me know asap so I cash get organised.

Saturday night the park has a choice of meals available for purchase. We will need to let them know on the Friday what meals are required on Saturday. They can only accommodate 24 people in the dining room.

Choice for $20/ head is:

Baked potato with toppings and Roast meat or

Veggie bar and Roast Meat or

Pizza and Pasta

Other option is pizzas around the camp fire.

Don't forget Coobowie in October. You need to confirm your attendance asap.

Regards Phil

Berri Rally Report Berri Riverside Caravan Park

Well a great turnout for Berri with 11 vans and 22 people. Apparently there was a lot of rain on Thursday but for the rest of the weekend it was sunny. Obviously was cold morning and evening but that was okay.

After people had set up their vans everyone went up to the camp kitchen for a hilarious joint card game provided by Lyn & Phil. Think Marie & Hal won that one!

Later on we again gathered in the camp kitchen for a shared tea. Everyone goes to a lot of trouble to provide the wonderful array of casseroles. As usual we all ate too much. After food was cleared away

Dean organised a quiz game. Three tables of seven. Some of the question really had us stumped. All good fun though and lots of choc prizes. A big thank you to Dean for arranging this.

The following day a group of 12 went to the Lavender farm at Glossop. They had a game of putt putt amid much laughter. Also a nice lunch.

Happy hour seems to start earlier and earlier as we gathered outside Lou and Tom's van. Someone suggested limericks. Again think Marie's was really funny closely followed by Sandra.

In the evening we all went to the Berri Hotel for tea. Good atmosphere, good food and good company, what more could we ask? Pack up time was on Sunday although 8 of us stayed another day. Another wonderful weekend, can't wait for the next one.
