Jayco Jaybirds: Goolwa Rally, 4th to 6th March, 2016

Hi all fellow Jaybirds. Did we all have a great weekend at Goolwa? I think so, judging by the socialising, laughing, eating and consumption of various beverages. Once again, a very successful weekend I think.

As this article is written by The Crazy Dog Lady I think I should welcome our special new Jaybird members Whisky and Ginny. What little cuties they both are, and such cuddles were enjoyed by those people who wished to. I even placed one in Anne's arms very briefly. I look forward to seeing them grow and be happy little campers. (oh and Karen and Emma too I guess) LOL. SPECIAL NOTE: Karen has asked me to pass on Emma and Karen's thanks to everyone who helped socialise the puppies and made them part of the group. Emma and Karen are both really very grateful. Thanks.

Meals were great again and I wonder if the occasional booking for lunch at a cafe or similar might not be a good choice from time to time. Those of us who walked on the beach at the Mouth of the Murray, had fun, with target practise taking place with the odd "sea ball". Molly, and Gem, but especially Darcey thought this beach was terrific.

Now I know some of you went off visiting Strathalbyn, Langhorne Creek, lunched at the Green Man cafe, but as I don't really know more details than that, I hope you had a nice time. Some of us walked the Goolwa main street and I found there was a lot to see and do. Perhaps another visit to Goolwa might be arranged some time, as there are activities, ie Cockle Train and Paddle steamer cruise which might be interesting.

Anyway, this is my brief article for the weekend. Keith and I thank you for your company and hearty spirits etc. and look forward to catching up when we return from Sydney, perhaps with the possibility of a new member. For those who could not attend this rally, fortunately for us all, there is always a next time.
