

Jayco Jaybirds SA

March 2017

From The Editor

Welcome to the Jayco Jaybirds SA club newsletter.

This month we have 2 reports on our Wallaroo rally. Thanks to Alison for hers, and Tom and Louise for theirs. Also thanks again to Peter and Pauline for the photos.

Please note that instead of our page advertising Jayco, Matt has asked me to attach a brochure (in pdf format) of the new Jayco Adventurer Off-road Caravan.

MARCH 17-19TH PUNYELROO (85702021) The committee thought it would be good to have an extra rally in March, when the weather is great for caravanning, and so we have added this. The park is on the opposite bank to Swan Reach. Again the same applies as with all the rallies, please let me know 4-6 weeks prior. ACC is planning a BBQ including salads, for us on the Saturday night. Currently we have 5 vans attending.

APRIL 7-9TH LAURA (86632296) Home to the fantastic ice cream Golden North. The option of touring the factory is no longer possible, but we can see a film at the visitor centre and there are plenty of places to taste! There is another subsidised meal on Saturday night which will be organised by the committee. Friday night tea will be a shared tea, as it will no longer be in daylight savings (e.g. slow cook, a pasta, curry etc) let your imagination take us on an adventure, (or the pub) depending on the weather.

Remember: 1) to book in your attendance 4-6 weeks prior to a rally.

2) If you can't make it after you have booked with me, you will need to let the park know as well as myself.

Looking Forward:

May 5-7th McLaren Vale (83239255) The people who went last time are looking forward to a return visit.

June 2-4th Tanunda (85632784)

For those who like to plan way ahead, we have amended our October from Middleton to hopefully Hahndorf. More info nearer the time.

Reminder that when daylight saving finishes we change from BBQ and Salad to a shared meal and usually a pub or club visit.

If you have any queries please contact me either by email

North Beach Tourist Park Wallaroo

Hi Jaybirds, I hope you all had a pleasant weekend away. We did, but we were fortunate enough to be able to stay for five nights, rather than two. Whilst the weather was warm, the sea breeze helped a little during the day, and at night, it became quite chilly, with some running for jackets and blankets. Happy hour Friday, followed by bbq tea for those who wished, with I believe dancing and much fun in the bbq camp kitchen. Keith and I completely missed this events (silly idiots). I had even forgotten it was Friday! Ho hum . . .

Saturday, more laughter, swimming for three of us! The beach was beautiful, the water cooling and clear. Now, when did the ladies all walk the beach? I don't remember which day it was, but pretty sure none of the guys did much in the way of exercise on the beach. Peter, Phil and Tom tried their hand at fishing and crabbing, with a single fish caught and some crabs.

I will add here that on the Monday night after everyone had gone home, and following a glorious day weather-wise, I caught a lovely fish off the Wallaroo jetty. Yes they were biting, and I let one get away and fed some more. Saturday night dinner was great at the pub, followed by more mmm shall we call it extended Happy Supper Hour? I sometimes wonder how we can find just so much to laugh about. A good indication of friends and fun I guess.

Thank you for supplying the fun photos Peter and Pauline.

As for the park, it was okay. I had asked for this park to be included, but was disappointed that we had not been allocated the grassed sites by park management. The grass sites always seem a little cooler and cleaner in summer weather, but this did not seem to interfere at all with our fun under the shade of the trees. I hope you all enjoyed yourselves as much as we did, and we look forward to seeing those of you who can make it to Laura. For those going to Punyelroo, travel safely and have fun.

Alison

North Beach Tourist Park Wallaroo

Good day fellow Jaybirds. Another successful weekend was shared by all at Wallaroo van park. Walks on the beach were enjoyed by all including Molly and Alison's 3 dogs. I'm going to hide the ball next time.( lol )

Friday night found a few night owls climbing into bed at 3am. but we won't mention any names. Problems of the world were solved.

Saturday night dinner was at the hotel, Thank you to Peter and Pauline suggesting this venue. Our prawns rated 10/10.

A big highlight for Phil was the fish that he caught, but we won't mention that it only fitted onto a Jatz biscuit.

Hal went to sleep in his chair and woke up just in time before he was given a new set of eyebrows but once again no names mentioned.

The sun shone and laughter reigned. Sadly most left Monday, leaving only Alison and Keith to enjoy another day.

Oh we can't forget the crabs the men caught and Peter cooked for us. Sadly only four, so more Jatz biscuits, but yummy.

Toodle oo till Punyelroo!!!

Tom & Louise

ACCA SA can supply 'Do Not Overtake Turning Vehicle' signs at $15 each. Please let Phil know if you would like to order one.

I hope neither of them are driving home!

How to eat an ice-cream the Marie way.

Lin in top form!

On The Lighter Side

VIRGIN

A mother and her young son were flying Virgin Blue from Brisbane to Melbourne. The son (who had been looking out the window turned to his mother and asked, 'If big dogs have baby dogs and big cats have baby cats, why don't big planes have baby planes?'

The mother (who couldn't think of an answer) told her son to ask the flight attendant. So the boy asked the flight attendant, 'If big dogs have baby dogs and big cats have baby cats, why don't big planes have baby planes?'

The flight attendant responded, 'Did your mother tell you to ask me?' The boy admitted that this was the case. 'Well, then, tell your mother that there are no baby planes because Virgin Blue always pulls out on time. Ask your mother to explain that to you.

CHINESE

A couple go for a meal at a Chinese restaurant, and order the 'Chicken Surprise'. The waiter brings the meal, served in a lidded cast iron pot. Just as the wife is about to serve herself, the lid of the pot rises slightly and she briefly sees two beady little eyes looking around, before the lid slams back down.

'Good grief, did you see that?' she asks her husband. He hadn't, so she asks him to look in the pot. He reaches for it and again the lid rises and he sees two little eyes, looking around before it slams down. Rather perturbed, he calls the waiter over, explains what is happening, and demands an explanation.

'Please sir,' says the waiter, 'what you order?'

The husband replies, 'Chicken Surprise'

(You're going to love this, and you're going to hate yourself for loving it!...)

'Ah! So sorry,' says the waiter, 'I bring you Peeking Duck by mistake'.....

SOMETIMES I PRETEND TO BE NORMAL, but I lost my medication!
